PERICLES.—The resolution of the new Amateur Union in practically boycotting a first-class athletic club like the Manhattan is coming to be looked on as the writer of this column said it would be. The Philadelphia Press and Chicago Referee have remarked upon the matter adversely.

Last week the Chicago Athletic Club, which had already joined the Amateur Union, held a meeting at the Grand Pacific Hotel, at which it was decided to go under the ban of the new resolution by competing at the Missouri Athletic Club's N. four A. Western championships, which was held at St. Louis yesterday.

Prominent athletes in New York and vicinity are unanimous in denouncing this attempt to forbid their competitors at legitimate amateur games. It is more than likely the N. four A. championships, to be held at the Eighty-eighth street and Eighth avenue grounds in October, will be a tremendous success. The Irish team of athletes will certainly compete at this meeting.

Within a month two championship meetings of the utmost importance to amateur athletes in America are to be held. If it is held that at any time a disappointed number of members of an athletic association can go out—second and form a new union, a confederacy—where is this thing going to end?

The running broad jump at the Detroit championships promises to be especially interesting. Champion and record holder M. W. Ford, Alex. Jordan, Al Copeland, H. S. Young, John Purcell, with a claim to a jump of 23 feet 11 inches; C. T. Wiegand and Sherman, of Yale, are the contestants.

John Frazier will have charge of the big team the Manhattan Athletic Club will send to compete at Detroit.

A beautiful golf stop-watch is at the Manhattan Athletic Club-house awaiting presentation to Champion Sprinter Fred Westing. Mr. Seaks, the giver, has tendered with it, to the best of the club, a new watch, which he says he hopes the watch will mark Westing's reduction of the 100-yard record.

W. J. M. Barry's entry in the coming championships in Michigan has been accepted. The Irish champion enters from "Queen's College, Cork."

Two subscriptions, amounting to $600, have been made by Mr. C. C. Hughes towards sending across the water an N. four A. team in 1889.

Jack Grace and Jack Dolan, the latter a pupil of light-weight pugilist Billy Dacey, are to fight within forty-eight hours. It will be with skin-tight gloves, for a purse and to a finish. The limited number of spectators to take in this scrap will probably get their money's worth.

Alex. Jordan will be in the 120 and 220 yard hurdles race, the running high and running broad jump and the pole vault at the meeting on Sept. 19.

A FORGER QUICKLY TRACED.
Journalist Riggs Loses His Salary Through a Forged Order.

Robert T. Adams, aged twenty-nine, of Grand, L. I., was held in $1,000 bail for the Grand Jury by Justice Solon H. Smith at the Tombs Police Court this afternoon. The complaint was for forgery, and the complainant is Edwin G. Riggs, a journalist and recognized authority on Wall street matters, whose week's salary of $94.95 was secured by the forger last Saturday.

Adams sent messenger No. 1, 2,000 from 100 Broadway, where he is employed as a clerk by the American Surety Company, to Riggs' employers with a forged order for the salary. The forger was Willard H. Hodgson, of Alamo street, Brooklyn, a former reporter on several city papers, and Adams' friend. Hodgson, who is his friend, has made him his dupe by getting him to send the messenger without knowing the character of the message.

Acting Capt. Hutton and Detective Oates and Nugent, of the Old Slip station, cleverly worked up the case and arrested Adams this morning. Hodgson is still at large.

THE MAYOR'S WIFE AND VOLUNTEER MAY RACE.
(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
MANHATTAN, Mass., Sept. 10.—It is quite probable that the Mayor's wife will race with the Volunteer in the Eastern Yacht Club race Friday. Rear Commodore Morgan telegraphed Mr. Goddard, secretary of the Regatta Committee, that he would enter the Mayor's wife provided the volunteer would go in against her. Unfortunately the Mayor's wife was not at home, and the telegram was unopened for several days, but it was found yesterday, and Geo. Faine, who is at present in New York awaiting the arrival of his family from Europe, was immediately informed of its contents by telegraph.

The time is now rather short for the boat race in redoubt, but the Mayor's wife is at Newport, and if G. F. Faine can catch her, she will undoubtedly make a great effort to be on hand.

Ernest the Winner of the Brighton Beach Handicap.

Lemon Blossom, Blue Line, Flash and Egmont Also Win.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.
BRIGHTON BEACH RACE TRACK, Sept. 10.—A big attendance saw the last day's racing of this season at Brighton. The sport of the soils couldn't soak up the three days' rain, and the running was done on the heaviest of tracks. A heavy list of scratched horses was hung up early.

There was rather a good deal for the Beachcombers, such horses as Egmont, Tom Hooker, King B. and Sam Harper, Jr., being entered, and Jimmy McLaughlin to ride the Chicago's nag.

Lemon Blossom, the choice, captured the first race, paying $21.50 for $5 to the mutuels.

Blue Line, a horse selling in the field, that has run himself into form, got the second race at a mile and a sixteenth mile, paying $23.50 for $5 to the mutuels.

The third race, in which Harwood, Bess Viol, Clay Fate and Flash ran, was a beauty. Bess Viol made the running for nearly three-quarters of a mile, when Flash and Clay Fate, the latter the favorite, got by and raced home.

Flash held his lead of a length gallantly almost to the line, when Clay Fate, who was slowly gaining, was beaten by a nose. Flash paid $4.15 for $5.

Ernest's victory in the first, the $500 purse race, was mainly due to the bad start. He paid $6.35 for $5.

HAPPY HOOSIERDOM.

Giants Drop the Last Game at Indianapolis.

Mutrie Hopes the Boys Will Win the Hats at Chicago.

New York 3
Indianapolis 4

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.
BALL GROUND, INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 10.—Today's game was the last scheduled for the giants at Indianapolis, and, considering the average attendance at games here, a very fair crowd turned out to see the contest.

Senator Grady, the silver-tongued orator from New York, who is to speak at a democratic mass-meeting in this city to-night, accepted Manager Mutrie's invitation to attend the game, and rode out to the grounds in Mr. Mutrie's carriage.

The Senator is somewhat of a crank on baseball, and during the drive out entertained the genial manager with many stories, all showing the interest and excitement which prevails in Gotham about the game.

On the last visitation to Hoosierdom the giants took two games out of the three played. This time they have already won two of the three and Saturday's game made the seventh straight victory won from Indianapolis by the giants.

Nothing is now talked of by any of the New York contingent but the coming game on Chicago. The boys are determined to win two games out of the four away, and if they play the ball they are anxious to, Anson and Company will be just four games further behind at the end of the series than they were at the beginning.

Mr. Mutrie is very much disappointed that the Hoosiers failed to win the last game, and he is more anxious than ever to have the giants win the series.

Welch left town last night and by this time is probably resting quietly in Chicago, waiting to pitch the opening game there. Kere is with the team as a scout, who has pitched two effective but losing games against the giants.

The warm and fair, sky cloudless; attendance, 1,200.
